The session topics will be components of the Teaching Pyramid and how directors can support their staff with implementation in their classrooms. The Teaching Pyramid approach “provides a systematic framework that promotes social and emotional development, provides support for children’s appropriate behavior, prevents challenging behavior, and addresses problematic behavior”. All sessions will be provided by staff from the WestEd’s Center on the Social Emotional Foundations in Early Learning (CSEFEL).

The format includes lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 12:00 and the presentation with facilitated discussion from 12:00 to 3:00.

Please note all RSVPs must be paid for. If you would like to be added to the email notification list, please contact Tammy Burns at 661/861-5274 or taburns@kern.org
